Preliminary Note	1
Brief in Opposition to Petition For Writ of Certiorari	2
A. Summary of Argument	2
B. Statement of The Case	3
C. Points of Law	7
1. McMullin had adequate notice of the Amended Third Counterclaim and an adequate opportunity to be heard. Thus there is no violation of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.	7
2. McMullin's disclaimer of an interest in the mining claims is unimportant	7
3. No constitutional question was promptly and aptly raised in the Supreme Court of Colorado.	11
4. There is no ground for the issuance of any Writ of Certiorari in respect of any judgment against Daniels and Hiskey even if there might be merit in McMullin's claim for such a Writ as to him	13
D. Conclusion	14
